you bear to men, to like as much of this play as please you: and I charge you, O men, for the love you bear to women--as I perceive by your simpering, none of you hates them--that between you and the women the play may please. If I were a woman I would kiss as many of you as had beards that pleased me, complexions that liked me and breaths that I

A line like "What had he to do to chide at me?" doesn't sound like verse, does it? This production is a reunion of sorts—it was one of the first plays I worked on when Michael Kahn invited me to teach at Juilliard years ago. I directed a production of As You Like It in a small room, and it contained the kernel of the concept for this
