Ego death is a "complete loss of subjective self-identity". The term is used in various intertwined contexts, with related meanings. In Jungian psychology, the synonymous term psychic death is used, which refers to a fundamental transformation of the psyche. In death and rebirth mythology, ego death is a phase of self-surrender and transition, as described by Joseph Campbell in his research on ...

The Torajan's believe that death is not instantaneous, but rather it can take months or even years for a person to fully pass over to Puya (the afterlife), and that this can only occur after the body is buried. Until the time of burial the deceased body is kept in the family home, and thought of as a 'Makula' – a 'sick person'. In order to prevent the body from decaying and ...
