Most people try to revise and memorise facts by simply reading the material, and hoping that it will somehow stick in their brain.. But decades of memory research shows that this is a remarkably slow and ineffective way of learning.. Loads of students ask what else they can do. To solve this problem and save you buckets of time and stress, S-cool have launched a brand new product called mojo ...

Activity I use as a starter to get students to practice skimming and scanning for particular information. The way it works: - hand students a copy of sheet one (with all the words) - ask them to find answers to specific questions e.g. 'Find me a funny shaped fruit&' or '&';find me something you would wear to school.' etc - first one to put up hand with right answers wins a point.

Dumbing down is the deliberate oversimplification of intellectual content in education, literature, and cinema, news, video games and culture. The term "dumbing down" originated in 1933, as movie-business slang used by screenplay writers, meaning: "[to] revise so as to appeal to those of little education or intelligence". Dumbing-down varies according to subject matter, and usually involves the ...
