Fingerplays and action rhymes help toddlers learn about rhyming words and poetry. They get toddlers to listen, speak, and pair words with actions. Sometimes your toddler says a rhyme and uses her fingers, hands, or body to “act it out.” When she does these things, she is playing a fingerplay or action rhyme.

Especially for parents of toddlers! Toddler Fingerplays

'Tadpoles Action Rhymes' is a BRAND NEW series of books from the popular publisher Franklin Watts, using the generally well-known versions, along with a new rhyme based on the same theme.
